

LEWIS LEADS CSLA TO TITLE, 87-80

Cal State Los Angeles guard Raymond Lewis won his battle with Pepperdine's William Averitt Saturday night, leading the Diablos to the Cal State Los Angeles Tournament championship with an 87-80 victory over the Waves at the Sports Arena.

Lewis, the nation's second leading scorer, poured in 34 points—26 in the second half—as he hit 13 of 27 shots from the floor and had 7 assists, while Averitt, who connected on only 9 of 28 field goals, scored 26. Lewis, who scored 46 points Thursday night against Texas Southern,
